I AM CREATIVE

Decoration

Go Short is characterised by its unique style, which can be recognised everywhere at the festival. All attributes are handmade or customized. To make sure the decoration of the festival is on point, we need creative souls who love to create decorations such as photo walls and who want to help with the decoration of the festival! Creating new concepts is not necessary but suggestions are welcome.

You:

- Are handy with scissors and glue
- Have a keen eye for detail
- Are able to create something out of nothing

Working hours: Before the festival. The construction is from Friday March 28th until Tuesday April 1st, Do you also want to volunteer during the festival? You are more than welcome to sign up for other functions!

Web editor/videographer/photographer

You know exactly how to capture the atmosphere of Go Short in pictures, you shoot the best videos, or you write the best stories. You have good eyes and ears and love to blend in with the visitors of the festival. There is nothing you do not see, you are daring and not afraid of anything. You are committed and motivated to create entertaining, lively commentary of the festival. Did we just describe you? Then sign up for the editorial office of the festival! Do you capture the best pictures? Then sign up as photographer. Do you want to edit film, sound and text? Then sign up as video-editor. Bringing your own camera is not necessary.

As member of the editorial office you experience the festival from within. You develop self-assertion and creativity. You learn to seize the opportunities for the best photos or videos and write the best stories.

You

- Have experience in editorial office
- Know how to use a camera or are an amazing copywriter
- Are able to work autonomously

Please note that there is a selection for this function, after your submission. Is photographing or filming more than a hobby for you? Then fill in the registration form and send your CV, motivation and portfolio to vrijwilligers@goshort.nl. Some experience is required. Because we use a selection, we advise you to also sign up for other functions.

Working hours: during the festival, mostly in the afternoon and evening.
